

Part of the Brooking Collection of Architectural Detail. See page 12.

A Sewer Disconnector Cover from Margate, Kent. See the items on the mystery photo, pages 16 to 17. This example from a standard casting has the iron founders identification letters PRYK at the top left (Martin Snow)

Sussex Industrial Archaeology Society Newsletter

Number 157

January 2013

The specially commissioned picture presented at the AGM to Our President, Air Marshal Sir Frederick Sowrey in celebration of his nintieth birthday. (© Chichester Graphic Arts)

Newsletter 157

Contents

January 2013

Editorial	3
Forthcoming SIAS Events	3
Events from other Societies	4
Increase in the Subscription Rate	6
Tithe Maps - An Invaluable Resource	6
Brick Arches	7
Sutton Hall - Isfield Pump	8
The Disappearing Telephone Box	9
Endangered Sites	10
Transport of the Masses - The October Evening Meeting	11
The Brooking Collection	12
Mrs Curling's legacy and curios connections	13
Former Bexhill West Branch	15
Wealden Iron Research Group	15
Mystery Photo in Newsletter 156	16
Henry Grist, Iron Founder	17
Mystery Photos and update	18

Our Chairman, John Blackwell, presenting two pictures to our President at the AGM